President Gary Stroede called the meeting to order at 1:05 p.m. in Packy's Grill at Hope Hotel in Fairborn.

Recording Secretary Sue Stacy read the minutes from the January 28, 2017, meeting. The minutes were accepted as corrected.

Corresponding Secretary Pam Williams mentioned an email that she and Sue Stacy received from Ron Eifert of the Dayton Convention and Visitors Bureau asking what it would take for STCGD to move its specialty to wherever the new Fairgrounds might be located. She will write back to Mr. Eifert with a list of considerations - location, price, hotel proximity, banquet facilities, etc.

Sunshine Chair Susan Jackson said she sent out nine cards since the last meeting - to Frank and Joan Schiavone to let them know we miss them, to Jack Anastasia following his hand surgery, to Elayne Snell to thank her for her years of work on the newsletter, to Don Riepenhoff and Peggy Pearce to thank them for all their work for the club, to Angie Anastasia to thank her for all the hard work on the quilt/thinking of you, to Susan Moloney for getting the beautiful wine glasses, to Brad Hawley on his recent surgery, to Anne Goodell a "thinking of you" Valentine, and to Dan and Toni Hines on the loss of his mother.

In Rescue, Cheryl Bates reported there have been no new dogs. She's been spending her time trying to help with Diane Wright's dogs that are in foster care in Columbus. Nestle and Chip will, hopefully, be adopted together since they are a bonded pair. Denyse Marshall said she has been working with Vicki Frazier and other Rescue groups around the country to get them placed. Denyse also said the Dayton Scottie Rescue page is up and running on Facebook.

Show Chair Sue Stacy reported on the breakfast hospitality, announcing that our hospitality will be located on the fifth floor of the hotel and not near the show area. She also reminded members that deadlines for reservations are fast approaching and that there will be a Show Committee meeting following the General Meeting.

Angie said she is still working on a way to display the quilt. It was suggested we take two of the 8-foot folding tables, stand them on end and drape the quilt over that.

Sue also reminded everyone to get their receipts to Susan Moloney so we have an idea of what is being spent.

Denyse asked that anyone with news for the club get it to her ASAP for the newsletter.

The next meeting will be March 11 at Hope Hotel.

Jack Anastasia moved and Bill Pool seconded a motion that the meeting be adjourned. The motion passed and the meeting was adjourned at 1:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sue Stacy
Recording Secretary
