President Gary Stroede called the meeting to order at 12:55 p.m. at Packy's in the Hope Hotel in Fairborn.

Recording Secretary Sue Stacy read the minutes from the March 19th meeting. There were no corrections or additions and the minutes were approved as read.

Corresponding Secretary Pam Williams passed around thank you cards she had received from John McNabney and Nancy Hurren following the Specialty.

There was no Sunshine report.

In Rescue, Cheryl Bates reported she's received notices from people saying they want to surrender their dogs but no one has followed through, yet. There were two in Newark that Rita Adler-Morris had volunteered to go pick up and Ginny Luken was going to foster, but nothing definite has been set up.

In the Specialty wrap-up, Sue Stacy mentioned several areas where there were problems including the hours for Hospitality because some people thought it closed down too early, and using a color other than black for the skirts on the trophy table because some people had difficulty seeing the black dogs. Peg Pearce asked that people please stop taking her images from social media for use because they may not be the image she intended for the Specialty. Sue also thanked everyone for all they did during the show.

Per the STCGD Constitution, elections were held for the officers and board members nominated for 2016-2017 offices: President, Gary Stroede, Vice President, Susan Jackson, Corresponding Secretary Pam Williams, Treasurer Susan Moloney, and for 2016-2018 terms on the Board of Directors, Angie Anastasia and Nancy Bowles. All were elected by acclamation. Ray Oliver and Marcia Harbison were thanked for their service to the club.

In New Business, it was suggested that perhaps Ways and Means should have a separate table from the Boutique but it was pointed out that close track is kept of which monies go where and that Ways and Means is a year-round project.

Cheryl Bates mentioned that her niece has offered to help with the calendar photos. ~~Sandy Maddux said she would email Rita about this.~~ (Sandy told Sue she does not remember saying this.)

Peg Pearce discussed her progress on the decorations and ideas for our 2017 theme “Mardi Paws”. She requested people bring her bottles of all sizes because she is making labels to put on them – wine bottles, beer bottles and whisky bottles. She will also be filling hurricane glasses with Mardi Gras beads, but will also need items like glitter and other items for decorations. The slate and wood for the plaques she is creating is being prepared. Peg also said she will have the illustrations for 2017 T-shirts by May 31st.

Angie Anastasia requested that quilt squares be completed as quickly as possible so she can get them to the lady who is assembling the quilt.

Gary introduced our guests, Camryn and Anessa Snapp. This was their second event.

Pam Williams moved and Ray Oliver seconded a motion to adjourn. The motion was passed and the meeting adjourned at 1:38 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sue Stacy
Recording Secretary
